The Reserve at Tamarack Resort Voted Best Ski Restaurant in North America

Restaurant honored by USA TODAY 10BEST Readers' Choice Awards

TAMARACK, Idaho (December 1, 2023)—The Reserve at Tamarack Resort has been named the Best Ski Restaurant in North America in USA TODAY's 10Best Readers' Choice Awards for 2023.

Earlier this fall, a panel of industry experts and editors at USA TODAY 10Best Readers' Choice Awards chose The Reserve as one of 20 nominees for Best Ski Restaurant out of the hundreds of resort dining offerings across North America. After a month of public voting, The Reserve emerged as the #1 choice of resort guests, skiers and riders, besting nominees from Lake Louise and Deer Valley to Jackson Hole.

As USA TODAY noted, "Gone are the days when ski-in dining meant a sad, overpriced sandwich and a bag of chips. These days, on-mountain restaurants are upping their culinary game. Skiers and snowboarders will find everything from craft beer bars to fine dining establishments without having to stray too far from the slopes." Nestled in the heart of The Village and overlooking the mountain, The Reserve offers a fine casual dining experience that seamlessly blends American cuisine with a selection of steakhouse favorites. Drawing inspiration from the rich flavors of the Pacific Northwest, the menu showcases a fusion of global culinary techniques, promising a gastronomic journey for the discerning palate. The culinary team takes pride in featuring fresh local and regional ingredients, actively sourcing from local farms and ranchers whenever feasible to ensure the highest of quality. The restaurant name and design are inspired by Idaho's International Dark Sky Reserve. From après-ski shareables and cocktails around the patio fireplace to a seated full-course dinner, The Reserve stands out in Idaho and across North America as a favorite of resort guests.
